

You're one special Mother and I'm one special child!
Let's play a game with M&Ms bright and wild!
Pick a candy, any color will do,
And answer the question through and through.

First, you pick a candy and take a turn,
Then, I will choose one and the answer you'll learn.
Have fun and be silly, get to know each other well!
And to each other- I LOVE YOU SO MUCH, don't forget to tell!

-  What is one of your favorite things to do with me?
-  If you could go anywhere with me, where would it be? Why?
-  Where do you see me in 10 years?
-  Name 3 reasons why you love me.
-  Ask me any question you would like.
-  Hum a tune and see if I can guess it!
